Monday, October 21 - Saturday, October 26 at McAllen Public Library Branches

Get ready for Pet Week at the Library, a special event series presented by the South Texas Book Festival! McAllen Public Library will host a variety of engaging events throughout the week, including storytime, crafts, and activities, along with appearances from special guests and community partners. Don't miss out on celebrating Pet Week with Marty the Cat, McAllen Public Library's mascot! Go to <https://mcallenlibrary.net/stbf/schedule/petweek> to learn more.

Tuesday, October 29 at 6:00PM - 7:30PM at Main Library, Meeting Room AB

Kick off the festival on Tuesday evening with Vida Verse, a literary event celebrating contemporary poets from South Texas. Renowned Rio Grande Valley poets César L. de León, Gume Laurel III, Javier Villarreal, and Julieta Corpus will share their works, reflecting the culture and spirit of the region through powerful verse and storytelling.

Wednesday, October 30 at 6:30PM - 8:00PM at Main Library, Meeting Room AB

Enjoy an intimate evening with authors Alberto Roblest, Rene Saldaña, Richard Santos, and Rubén Degollado as they discuss their works at the Library. Guests will receive a signed book by each of the featured authors, freshly brewed coffee options from a full expresso bar, and delicious pastries in a relaxed setting. Tickets are $30 and all proceeds from the ticket sales will support STBF. Purchase tickets online: bit.ly/stbftickets
