

Patty Raymond York

STORYTIME

w/ Patty Raymond York

Main Library - Children's Dept.

Saturday, October 28th, 2023 from 11:30AM-12PM

Patty York Raymond is a Multi-Award Winning Author and a native Texan. Her children's picture books, Aspire/Aspirar, The ABCs to Ranching, It's Too Windy and Hay Mucho Viento have received state, national and international acclaim. To her credit, Patty's picture books have been acknowledged by The Texas Authors Association, The NYC Big Book Awards, Purple Dragon Book Awards, Skipping Stones Honor Awards, International Book Awards, and from The International Latino Book Awards.

Patty is best known for writing children's picture books with rich language that incorporate music and movement and celebrate family and heritage. Parents appreciate Patty's books because they are relatable and their children are motivated to read and write. Teachers love that Patty's books can be used to complement their lessons and promote literacy skills across disciplines.

Patty enjoys working with children, families, and educators. For more information regarding Patty, her books, products and services go to www.pattyraymondbooks.com